Chapter 1. Kansai University Library Overview

○ Structure of the Kansai University Library

Kansai University Library consists of four libraries located at our four campuses - Senriyama, Takatsuki, Takatsuki Muse, and Sakai.

You can use any campus libraries or request delivery of a material from another campus library.

Library Name	Campus	Location
General Library	Senriyama Campus
Takatsuki Campus Library	Takatsuki Campus	B1, Bldg.B
Takatsuki Muse Campus Library	Takatsuki Muse Campus	1F, West Bldg.
Sakai Campus Library	Sakai Campus	2F, Bldg.B

○Opening Hours

Library	Day	Regular Semester / During exams	Summer Break	Spring Break
General	Mon. – Fri.	9.00am - 10.00pm	10.00am - 8.00pm	10.00am - 8.00pm
	Sat.		10.00am - 6.00pm	10.00am - 6.00pm
	Sun. & holidays	10.00am - 6.00pm	Closed	Closed
Takatsuki Campus	Mon. – Fri.	9.00am - 8.00pm	10.00am - 5.00pm	10.00am - 5.00pm
Takatsuki Muse Campus	Sat.	9.00am - 5.00pm	Closed
Sakai Campus	Sun. & holidays	Closed	Closed	Closed

For opening schedule, check “library calendar” on the Kansai University Library website.

- ◇ Reference Counter in the General Library limits its service at night or on holiday.
- ◇ Change of opening hour and temporary closure will be announced by posters inside the library and on the library website.
- ◇ Request for fetching a material from stack room and application for using CD-ROM PCs must be completed 15 minutes before the library closes.

Irregular closures

- Celebration of Attaining University Status (Jun. 5) and University Foundation Day (Nov. 4)
* Regardless of this, library will open if undergraduate school has a class on these day.
- August 11th to August 20th
- New Year holidays
- Entrance examination period (Libraries in Takatsuki Campus, Takatsuki Muse Campus, and Sakai Campus open)
- March 29 to March 31 (If Sunday is included in those 3 days, closure will be March 28 to March 31)
- Other temporary closures

○Entering/leaving the library

- Student ID card is required to enter/leave the library. Be sure to always bring your student ID card.
- When entering/leaving the library, tap your student ID card on the library gates.
- When leaving the library, pass through the exit gate. If you attempt to exit the library with library materials that have not been checked-out, alarm sounds and gate is locked. (Please note that some of your belongings, even though they are not library items, are detected by the machine and make alarm sounds.)

Chapter 2. Services

Borrowing

- Bring the book you want to borrow and your student ID card to the library counter.
- [General Library] To borrow books in the open stack room (2nd floor), go to Open Stack Counter on the 2nd floor. To borrow books in the stack room (B1/B2) or reserved books (including delivery from other campus libraries), go to Main Counter on the 1st floor. You can also use self-checkout machines to borrow/renew books by yourself.
- [Libraries other than General Library] You can borrow books at the counter.
- If you have lost your student ID card, contact the librarian as soon as possible. We will block your card so that no one can use it in the library. You are responsible for all damages caused by your lost card. As someone may use your lost card fraudulently, please be careful not to lose your student ID card. To replace your student ID card, please contact student ID card issuer on your campus.

	Loan Limits	Loan Periods
Undergraduates	Up to 10	Up to 2 weeks
Graduate Students	Up to 20 *	Up to 3 months

★ You cannot borrow books labeled "禁帯出 (In Library Use Only)", newspapers, new magazines, and some other materials.

* Loan limits and loan periods of graduate students have following limitations:

- Books in the open stack room of the General Library: up to 10 books for 2 weeks
- Books for study in the Muse, and Sakai Campus Libraries: up to 10 books for 2 weeks
- Books for study in the Takatsuki Campus Library: up to 10 books for 1 month
- ◇ Books borrowed from other campus libraries are taken into account for loan limits.
- ◇ Loan period will be shortened during exams.
- ◇ When a book has been requested by many users, loan period of the book will be shortened even if it is not during exams.
- ◇ During the school holidays, due date will be extended to the first weekday after the holidays. Check the notice inside the library or library website for detail.

Returning

- Books must be returned to the library before or on due date.
 - You can return books to any counter in the Geranial Library.
 - You can return books to any campus libraries regardless of the library from which they were borrowed.
- Please return books by the due date. Your delay will cause inconvenience to other users.

○ Overdue

If you have an overdue book, you will not be able to borrow, renew, and reserve any other books.

○ Lost or damage

If you have lost or damaged the book you borrowed, contact the librarian at the counter where you have borrowed the book immediately. You may be charged a replacement fee.

Renewing

- You can renew books by:
 - using online service
 - bringing books and student ID card to library counter
 - using self-checkout machines on the 2nd floor of the General Library
- Books can be renewed only once.
- You may not be able to renew a book if:
 - (1) it has been requested by another user
 - (2) it is overdue
 - (3) you have another overdue book
 - (4) during exams

Reservation

- If you find the book you want is on loan to someone else, or need the book held by another campus library, make a reservation.
 - Use KOALA (Kansai University Library Online Catalog) to reserve a book, or visit a library counter after searching for the material ID of the book you want to reserve.
 - You can check the progress of your request online. When the book is ready for you to borrow, we will send you a message via Information System. You can register your mobile phone as a forwarding address of the message sent to Information System.
- Reservations are needed to be collected within 1 week (3 days during exams).

<Online Service>

- On our website, you can reserve/renew a book as well as check progress of your borrowing, reservation, copy request, loan request, and purchase request.
- See pages 21 to 22 for details.

Photocopy

- Library users may copy library materials as long as it is done under Japanese copyright law. No more than a single photocopy should be produced for each part of book or journal article. Before copying, fill out 文献複写申込書 (photocopy request form) and put it into the box next to the copy machine.
- You may not copy your notes or other personal belongings.
- Most of the copy machines in the library accept copy card (50 units / 500 yen per a card), which is sold in vending machine in the libraries. In Sakai Campus Library, however, copy card is available at counter. There are also some copy machines which take cash – two for the General Library (on the 1st floor and 2nd floor) and one for other campus libraries.

- KU On-demand Print service

PCs in front of the Reference Counter and PCs in Learning Commons are available for printing a document to networked printers in the library. For details, visit the website of IT (Information Technology) Center.

- Reference Service

We offer a wide range of services to help you with finding library materials and information. If you have a question, ask at the counter shown below.

If the book or journal you need is not held by Kansai University Library

1. You can borrow it from other library or visit other library to use it.

To use this service, ask at the Reference Counter in the General Library or counters in Takatsuki, Takatsuki Muse, Sakai Campus libraries.

Inter-Campus request: Requesting a material held by the research institutes or material room (Siriyositsu) in Kansai University.

Ask librarian to know when the material will be delivered. Delivered material is needed to be collected within 1 week.

Interlibrary loan: Requesting a material held by the institutions other than Kansai University

- To visit the holding library:

We will issue introduction letter (request letter) to the holding library.

Please allow 2 to 3 days for you to receive the letter, as we need to check status of the material.

- To obtain a photocopy of the material:

We will request the holding library to provide a scan of the necessary part of the material.

The cost of obtaining a photocopy such as copying and mailing cost will be charged to you.

- To borrow a physical material:

This service is for books only. You may not borrow journals.

The cost of obtaining the book such as mailing cost will be charged to you.

Loaned book must be consulted within the library.

2. If there are materials you want us to add to the library's collections, you can make a purchase request. Fill out the 購入希望図書申込書 (purchase request form) and submit it to the counter shown below. We will meet your request as much as we can. Purchase request can also be submitted online.

General Library

Open Stack Counter: Undergraduates (Books for study)

Reference Counter: Faculty members, graduates, and others (Books for research, books for study)

Takatsuki Campus Library, Takatsuki Muse Campus Library, Sakai Campus Library

Counter: Undergraduates (Books for study), Faculty members, graduates, and others (Books for research, books for study)

After books for study have been stored for a certain period, we check the usage statistics of the books. If we find that the books have lost the value for which they were originally selected, they will be withdrawn. Books for research will normally be retained for a long period.

If you need help with finding information

Reference Counter in the General Library and counters in the Takatsuki, Takatsuki Muse, and Sakai Campus Libraries provide assistance in identifying library materials and information that are helpful for your investigation, research, and writing thesis. Please feel free to contact librarians.

Chapter 4. Materials held by Library

○ Types of Materials

Kansai University Library provides various types of materials. Refer to the followings to see what kind of materials are there and how to use them.

◆ Book

Book includes not only the book to read but also material edited as a tool for finding books or articles (secondary source material).

- book: Tankosho, Bunko, Shinsho, and others
- Secondary source material: Catalog, Index, Abstract, and others
- Reference book: Dictionary, Encyclopedia, Yearly book, Map, Statistics, and others

Standard books can be lend outside the library. (Some of them are inter-library use only).

Secondary source materials and Reference books are labeled with “禁帯出(inter-library use only)” and cannot be lend out of the library.

◆ Journal (Magazine)

Journal is a publication that is published in a series, or periodically. An academic journal serves as forum for the presentation for new research results. Journals issued by universities and other research institutions are called “Kiyō” (bulletin).

We treat current journals and back numbers bound up for storage separately, so location and usage of them differ. For how to search and use journal articles, please refer to pages 14 to 16.

◆ Newspaper

Newspaper is the best source for researching social science and current affairs as it contains full of latest news and topics. At this time, Asahi, Mainichi, Yomiuri, Sankei, and Nikkei Shimbun are available on database as well. We also hold bound volumes and microfilm.

◆ e-Journal

e-Journal is electronic issues of journal digitalized from scholarly journal or academic journal which were formerly issued as printed journal. It can be usually read online. The e-Journal subscribed by Kansai University Library can be accessed from any networked computer in the university. If the journal is free on the web, you can also read it from outside the campus. For how to search e-Journal article, please refer to page 15.

Database is an organized collection of data. Like a journal database or newspaper database, each database contains thousands of articles in a particular subject area or purpose of use. You can retrieve necessary information quickly from vast volumes of data by searching with a keyword or other search criteria. Once you find the data, you can browse full-text of the content and print out it. For the list of major database, refer to page 24.

* If you wish to use e-Journals or database, you should apply for "Activation of IT Center Account" via website of IT center in advance. Alumni, local users, and students of cooperated universities may not use database.

◆ e-Book

We provides access to e-Books. By just searching an e-Book on KOALA and clicking the link, you can access the e-Books from your computer or smartphone. Note that if the e-Book restricts the number of concurrent users and all sessions are in use, you cannot access it.

◆ Microform

Microform is a film on which printed material is photographed. Kansai University holds microfilms and microfiches. Most of them are housed in the stack room in the General Library. You can search microform from "マイクロ資料一覧" on the library's website.

To use microform, identify material ID of the item, and request at the Reference Counter in the General Library or counter in Takatusuki, Takatsuki Muse, and Sakai Campus Libraries. After the microform arrives at your desired library, you can use it on Micro-Reader in the library.

◆ Audiovisual

We hold audiovisual materials. You can use them on Audiovisual Players in the library.

◆ Rare book

Rare book comprises:

- Japanese printed book and manuscript published in or before 1614
- Foreign printed book and manuscript published in or before 1800
- Printed book and manuscript published after the above-mentioned years and distinguished by its importance as a library material.

Rare books are housed in the stack room in the General Library. To read rare books, you need take a necessary procedure in advance. Please ask at the Main Counter in the General Library. These collection must be consulted within the General Library.

◆ Collection

We hold following types of collections.

Private collection: collection formerly owned by prominent researchers

Special collection: collection of materials relating to a particular subject area or collection of materials acquired by special donation.

To view some exclusive collections, you need take a necessary procedure in advance. Please ask at the Main Counter in the General Library. These collection must be consulted within the General Library.

Chapter 5. Using Books, Journals and Newspapers

○ Finding a book or journals

Before using a book or journals, access Kansai University Library Online Catalog (KOALA) to see where to find the item and whether it is available online or on the shelf.

For details on how to use KOALA, see pages 17 to 20. Location mark in the first line of call number tells you which category the material is in and where it is located. (See page 25).

When you are in the General Library, and “location” of the search result is displayed as 書庫, fill out 閲覧・貸出申込書 (Request form for using materials in stack rooms) on the PC desk and bring it to the Main Counter. If the material is located in the open-stack room on the 2nd floor or in Takatsuki, Takatsuki Muse, and Sakai Campus Libraries, you do not need to apply for using items because you have direct access to these stacks room. However, we highly recommend you to take memo of call number so that you can identify the location of the book in the shelf. Refer to “Location of books on the shelf” below to look for the material effectively.

If you have a question about searching e-Journal, ask librarian at the counter.

○ Using magazines and newspapers

"Periodical" is a publication that comes out regularly, such as magazines (bulletin) and newspaper. You can use KOALA to search periodicals held by Kansai University. The result includes not only the library's holdings but also holdings of Material Room (Siryoshitu), and Research Institutes.

Magazines (bulletin)

1. New magazines (less than 1 year passed since published)

Japanese magazines and foreign magazines are shelved separately in New Magazines Corner by categories. Latest issues are shelved in front of magazine shelves. Back numbers are stored behind the door. Bulletins which are issued by universities and other research institutions are shelved in order of publisher's name. New magazines are not allowed to lend out of the library. You can request delivery of new magazine from other campus libraries, however, you should read them inside the library.

2. Back numbers (bound book)

One-year-old or older magazines will be bound if we find them necessary to be store longer period. In the General Library, bound items are housed in the stack room. To read them, fill in 閲覧・貸出申込書 (Request form for using materials in stack rooms) and submit it to the Main Counter. In other campus libraries, ask at the counter to find where they are. Bound magazines can be lend out of the library within 3 days.

3. e-Journals

As we explained in Chapter 4, Kansai University provide a wide range of e-Journals. To search e-Journal, visit "Electronic Resources Portal" from the library website and search with a title of journal. (See page 23)

You can browse full text of e-Journals on PCs in the campus, however, some journals limit the use of their articles for particular volumes. Refer to the search result screen of the Electronic Resources Portal for the volumes available under the Kansai University's subscription.

Newspapers

In the General Library, newspapers are located in the following location. In other campus libraries, how long old newspapers are kept and where they are located are different from the General Library. Contact librarian for detail.

	Location	Borrow
Current day	Newspaper shelves in the Reference Room on the 1st floor, Newspaper corner on the 2nd floor	NO

Chapter 6. Finding Holdings of Kansai University

Kansai University Library Online Catalog “KOALA”

KOALA is the online catalog for searching holdings of Kansai University.

In KOALA, you can see the book or serials you need is held by Kansai University and whether it is physical book or e-Book.

For detail, read “KOALA usage guide” (Japanese) in the library website.

Mobile OPAC and KOALA for smart phone

You can also use KOALA on mobile phone or smart phone. Please access following URL.

<https://www.lib.kansai-u.ac.jp/webopac/mobtopmnu.do>

The smartphone app “Ufinity”, which equips some functions of KOALA is also available. Download the app from The App Store or Google Play. For further information, see the library website.

Search Screen

■ Web OPAC Basic Search

The screenshot shows the KOALA library search interface. At the top, there is a header with the text "蔵書検索 KOALA". Below this, there are navigation links for "Catalog Search" and "User Service". On the right, there are icons for "Browsing History", "Search History", and a language selector set to "日本語".

The main search area features a horizontal menu with tabs for "KOALA", "Electric Books", "Rare books images", "Other Univ.", "Article", and "Cross Search". Below this menu is a search bar with "Basic Search" and "Advanced Search" tabs. A "Search" button is located to the right of the search bar. A callout box points to the "Advanced Search" tab with the text: "Click here to move to the 'Advanced search' screen."

Below the search bar, there is a small notice in Japanese: "メンテナンスのため、毎日2時から2時15分頃まで蔵書検索システムは利用できません。" A second callout box points to the "Search" button with the text: "Enter the keyword and click the Search button, then you will go to the Search Results screen. If there is one result, the Bibliography Details screen will be displayed directly."

■ Web OPAC Advanced Search

Click here to move to the "Basic search" screen.

By specifying one or more library, you can narrow your search by location of the material.

While you are typing keyword in the search box, drop-down menu will list a number of relevant titles for your keyword. (Suggest function)

The filed with * (asterisk) cannot be used alone as a search condition.

分項まで蔵書検索システムは利用できません。

■ Tab-to-tab search

When you search something on a tab and click other tab later, search terms you have entered is taken over to the next tab and search result will be displayed automatically.

When you search something on "KOALA" tab and click the "Other Univ." tab...

Search result under the "Other Univ." tab will be displayed.
